

ROSENWALD-BONNHHEIM.

Union of Two Popular Las Vegas Young People in Holy Wedlock.

A MAGNIFICENT WEDDING RECEPTION.

"With secret course, which no loud storms annoy, Glides the smooth current of domestic joy."—Johnson.

At the residence of the bride's parent's yesterday, at 1 o'clock, Mr. Cecilie Rosenwald and Miss Hannechen Bonnhheim took the mutual vow which bound them for life one to the other. Mr. Rosenwald is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Rosenwald, of this city, born and raised here, and is a typical Las Vegas young man—cautious, energetic, liberal and a prominent leader in the business circles of the city, being the junior member of the sound, progressive firm of E. Rosenwald & Son. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Bonnhheim, who came here about a year ago from Wheeling, W. Va., Mr. Bonnhheim being the present rabbi of the Congregation Montefiore here. By her modest and refined manner and courteous disposition Miss Bonnhheim has endeared herself to all with whom she has become acquainted.

The impressive Jewish wedding ceremony was performed by the bride's father, Rabbi B. A. Bonnhheim, in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. E. Rosenwald, parents of the groom; Messrs. Lucien, David E. and Master Gilbert Rosenwald, brothers of the groom; Mrs. Edward Rosenwald, Misses Alma and Jetty Rosenwald, aunt and cousins of the groom; Miss Gustchen and Mr. Arthur Bonnhheim, brother and sister of the bride; and Messrs. Berthold Bonnhheim and Alfred Steinmetz, cousins of the bride. There were also present Mr. and Mrs. Julius Judell, Mr. and Mrs. D. Winternitz, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rosenthal, Miss Carol Brewster, L. Strauss, Mrs. Coleman, Leo Gottlieb and David S. Rosenwald, of Trinidad.

The bride's costume was white gros-grain satin striped, trimmed with the new satin shell trimmings with accordeon plaited, mousseline de sole, and pearl ornaments, the latter a present from the groom, who was attired in the conventional black.

The bride's mother wore a black duchess satin trimmed with real gulf-pure lace in cream and black mousseline de sole. The groom's mother was attired in a black satin, real lace and diamond ornaments.

After the ceremony the wedding party repaired to the home of the bride's parents where an elegant banquet was partaken of and the afternoon was spent in joyous celebration of the happy event, and in reading the many telegrams of congratulation which poured in from all parts of the country, over sixty having been received up to 8 o'clock last evening. Among the congratulatory letters worthy of special mention was a beautifully worded, heartfelt one, in resolution form, from the E. Romero hose and fire company, of which the groom is a popular member.

In the evening, from 7 until 10, the house was thrown open to the reception of the invited guests, and during that time a constant stream of well-wishers of the happy couple poured in, offering their congratulations and partaking of refreshments, consisting of ice cream, cake and choice wines. The parents of the happy couple were ably assisted in the entertainment of the guests by Misses Carol W. Brewster and Gustchen Bonnhheim and Messrs. Lucien and David Rosenwald, and Berthold Bonnhheim. Mr. and Mrs. Rosenwald will take up their residence on South Pacific street, their home having been handsomely and completely furnished throughout, a gift from the groom's parents, where they will be "at home" after October 30th.

THE OPTIC joins their hosts of friends in the hope that their years may exceed by many the allotted time of man's life and their joys be as full as their years.

SINGING COMEDIANS.

The "Gaiety Comedy Four," singing comedians, the Messrs. Davies, Neale and Fehr, from Los Angeles, have been entertaining Las Vegas for several days. They sing well and say that their thanks are due to Ed Hamblin for inviting them at Albuquerque to come to Las Vegas, as here they have found more ready dollars aloft than at any point since leaving Phoenix, Ariz. One of their favorite songs is an original composition on Capt. Buckey O'Neill, the Rough Rider who was killed in the trenches in front of Santiago de Cuba. The song runs to the air of that popular ditty, "Just Tell Them that You Saw Me." The first stanza and chorus are appended:

While fighting for the stars and stripes
Against his country's foe,
A hero on the eve of victory fell.
You know his name—'tis Buckey O'Neill
Of whom we're going to tell.

You can bet the Spaniards saw him,
And they also heard him yell,
As he dashed with his Terrors up the hill;
For his country he gave up his life,
His home and family dear;
A hero he will be till judgment day.

GORDON PEARCE MISSING

Gordon Pearce, the well known Albuquerquean, who has long been connected with the Daily Democrat there, has suddenly and mysteriously disappeared. For a week nothing has been seen or heard of him, and it is feared that he has wandered away in the mountains, or has suicided. Domestic and financial difficulties are thought to be responsible for his conduct.

Thousands are Trying It.

In order to prove the great merit of Ely's Cream Balm, the most effective cure for Catarrh and Colic in Head, we have prepared a generous trial size for 10 cents. Get it of your druggist or send 10 cents to ELY BROS., 55 Warren St., N. Y. City.

I suffered from catarrh of the worst kind ever since a boy, and I never hoped for cure, but Ely's Cream Balm seems to do even that. Many acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostium, 45 Warren Ave., Chicago, Ill.

Ely's Cream Balm is the acknowledged cure for catarrh and contains no cocaine, mercury nor any injurious drug. Price, 50 cents. At druggists or by mail.

But few women have time to look like like their portraits.

A PARTING GUEST.

Mrs. John E. Norris, of Louisville, Ky., left in return to her home Saturday night. She has been a guest of the Montezuma since last December and by her pleasant manner and kindness has made herself a great favorite. Her many friends at the Hot Springs are sorry to lose her, but rejoice with her in her complete restoration to health.

A farewell supper was tendered to her Saturday evening by Mrs. Dr. Bailey and Mrs. Greenleaf, at which covers were laid for twelve ladies. The table was handsomely decorated with broad crimson ribbons and masses of autumn leaves and flowers. After the menu had been fully discussed the guest of the evening was felicitously toasted by Mrs. Wm. C. Hatcliffe, of Little Rock, Ark., and the ladies joined cordially in wishing Mrs. Norris continued health and happiness. A deputation escorted her to the train, and her departure will leave a blank at the Montezuma that will not easily be filled. May she live long and prosper is the sincere wish of all the friends she has left behind her.

ENTHUSIASTIC RATIFICATION.

The political campaign in San Miguel county was auspiciously inaugurated on Saturday night by the Union party advocates, the event taking the form of a spontaneous outpouring of the people to ratify the important step which had been taken during the day by J. L. Lopez and his friends in uniting with the Union party. An enthusiastic meeting was held in the west side school house, at which many eloquent speeches were made by party leaders and afterward the crowd, some 300 in number, formed in procession, headed by a band of musicians, and paraded through the principal streets. A stop was made at Silva Bros' resort where refreshments were had, and upon arriving at the Headquarters Cafe a bountiful lunch was served and a general jollification followed, lasting till midnight.

The present is the child of the past and the father of the future.

We never heard of husbands and wives quarreling about which loved the other most.

Of course women are naturally credulous when their portrait flatters them.
